WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1858.

The Approaching Election.—It is time the democrats in this county were organizing and making arrangements to bring out their full strength at the approaching election, which will be one of unusual interest, as we have, in addition to our county officers, several state officers, a Member of Congress, Senator, and two Representatives to elect. Let none stray from the polls thinking his vote may not be needed. It is true our majority in the county is large, but every vote may be needed for the state ticket, as the republicans are making strenuous efforts to carry the state, and the failure of a few democrats to vote either in this or any other county might decide the contest against us. A particular effort should be made to elect the candidates for Supreme Judges, in hopes they would reverse the decision of the present bench declaring the prohibitory law unconstitutional, in which event that odious, tyrannical, and unjust law would again be forced upon us. Every man opposed to such blue law tyranny must exert himself to defeat this evil law scheme.

The contest for member of Congress is close; there was a large majority in the district against us at the last election, and it will require the strongest efforts of the democrats to succeed on this occasion. Not a vote can be spared. Remember, that if the next Presidential election should go to the House of Representatives, it might depend upon our Representative whether the vote of the state should be given to the democratic candidate or his opponent; and that vote might decide the contest. A single vote might determine which way the vote of the state should be cast, and the failure to vote of a single democrat in this district, might change the character of the administration for four years. Let every democrat, then, be prepared to his duty. Allen is the banner county of the state, and all eyes are watching us. We must maintain our proud position, and roll up our full majority.

The election of state senator and representatives is also of the utmost consequence. The state is suffering from the factions caused by the republicans, and the next Legislature must contain a majority of law-abiding democrats, to repair the injury done the fame and credit of the state by the revolutionary error adopted at the last session of the legislature. We have honest, reliable men for our candidates, in whose hands we can safely commit our interests, with the assurance they will faithfully fulfill their trust. A strong effort is making by an insignificant clique of disappointed office seekers to defeat their election; but we feel an abiding faith that the democracy of Allen County, will rally to the support of their candidates, and teach the soreheads that this is no place for them to either rule or ruin. No Zebra ticket can be elected here, nor will the odious law-making of such an annual be tolerated among us.

For the several county officers to be elected—Clark, Sheriff, Treasurer, &c.—we have nominated one of our best men; men who have been tried and found faithful, as well to their duty as officers, as to the interests of their party as democrats. They are good officers, honest men, and reliable democrats; have been fairly nominated by the last convention ever held in the county as the choice of the democratic party; and as such are entitled to the warmest support of every democrat in the county. We hope therefore, every democrat will do his duty to his country—attend the polls and vote the full, unseparated, sincere democratic ticket. Let us show the d-organizers that the Allen County democracy is not to be led astray, and that Allen County is bound to remain the glorious banner democratic county of the state.

Readers J. Dawson the Democratic Nominee for Congress in the Fort Wayne District, declines to stump the District with Mr. Case. He doubts that in such a contest he would be so utterly annihilated that it is better to exercise that "union" which is said to be the "better part of valor."—Telegraphic Note.

Altogether a mistake, Mr. Blad—our rather gross misrepresentation. Mr. Case's old Kansas striking speech is more likely to "utterly annihilate" himself than his competitor; like an overworked man, his recoil is far more dangerous than his discharge; and is more likely to kick himself over than to injure his antagonist. The truth is, Mr. Dawson came here for the purpose of making arrangements for a joint canvass with Mr. Case, when he learned that that gentleman had already commenced the canvass alone, and had his appointments out. No other alternative was left Mr. Dawson, than to follow Mr. Case's example, and canvass the district "on his own hook." It is the latter gentleman who exhibited that better part of valor. It may do him to talk about Mr. Dawson being afraid to meet Mr. Case, but such an assertion here, where he is known, would be laughed at.

Rising Second Thought.—A. C. Pepper, Esq. of Rising Sun, Ind., who bolted from the Democracy and became a candidate against their own free will for the State Senate, has lately backed down and quit.

Efforts of the D-organizers.—There is a small clique of unprincipled men and disappointed office seekers in this city, who are bent on destroying the Democratic party—if they can. The character of the clique may be readily guessed, when we say that the notorious rascal, D. Turner is at its head, and Benjamin Ruffner and C. McCormick are the tail. This clique is seeking to control the nominations in this county, and decide who are to be our candidates. They had the matter all out and tried before the convention, which they hoped to be able to pack so as to secure the nomination of their own creatures. In this they signally failed, as the people took the matter into their own hands and nominated their own candidates. Now they raise the cry of clique, and hope to defeat the regular nominations by running what they term independent candidates, and to aid this scheme, are able to publish what they call a campaign anti-clique democratic paper. The name of W. H. Eckler appears as the capable editor, but the imbecile Reuben D. will of course be the ruling spirit of the concern, and is admirably qualified for the dirty work it will have to perform. We wish his coadjutors much joy in their connection with him, and shall be pleased if they prove an exception to the general rule, and escape without paying too dear for their whistle. If they do, they may consider themselves fortunate.

Now, is there a man in the county who desires to see such a miserable clique as this assume the control of our county affairs, and decide who shall be our candidates for office? Their present candidates profess to be Democrats; but can any good Democrat vote for such men in preference to our regular nominees, who are far better men, and the choice of our delegates in convention? And if the choice is to be between such disaffected soreheads, and the reputable men composing the regular ticket, what good Republican can hesitate to support the latter? The credit and fair fame of our county demand that this attempt at dictation on the part of this miserable clique should be at once indignantly frowned down.

Humbug.—We have seen many learned discussions on the origin and derivation of this new common word. Which may be the correct one we will not undertake to decide; but the following definition of the true meaning of the word, is by all odds the best that has come under our notice. It beats Webster's Unabridged:—"It is a Republican (CHARLES CASE, for instance) preaching popular sovereignty, when he swears the people shall not say what kind of a constitution they want, and if they do, Congress shall not admit them into the Union."

Dr. W. F. SHERROD, of Orange Co. made an excellent democratic speech to our citizens on Monday evening last, in which he held up to moral scorn and indignation the deceptive course pursued by the republicans in the present canvass, in raising such a clamor about Kansas, only to divert public attention from their misdeeds at home. He portrayed in striking colors the factious and treacherous conduct of the republican Senators in our last Legislature, in wantonly trampling on the requirements of the constitution they had sworn to support; usurping the power vested in the Lieut. Governor; expelling members legally elected, and admitting members who had been elected by fraudulent votes; refusing to pass the necessary appropriation and appropriation bills, leaving the state without revenue; and in other ways obstructing the administration of the public affairs of the state. The speech was an excellent one, just suited to the times. It was throughout thoroughly democratic, alluding to the disunion of Leocompton and anti-Leocompton, Buchanan and Douglas democrats, and showing that the Kansas and Leocompton difficulties were all settled, and that all democrats stood upon the same platform and had the same duty to perform in sustaining democratic principles and the democratic administration. The Doctor is an eloquent speaker, thoroughly orthodox in his views, and will accomplish much good in the present canvass. It will make many such speeches as he favored us with.

An Ass in a Zebra Skin.—Esope tells us of an ass who dressed himself in a lion's skin and attempted to ape the monarch of the forest; and we also read of a jackdaw decked out in peacock's feathers. These events are supposed to have transpired in the olden times. The nearest approach to these things in modern times may be witnessed in this county. Charles Eckler, McCormick, the man who pledged himself to abide the decision of our democratic convention and support its nominees, and then came out in opposition to its whole proceedings, is busy peddling round a tremendous ten-column circular, written by Reuben D. Turner, and palming himself off as the author! The way he struts in his Zebra skin entirely throws his predecessor of lion skin into the shade. The circular is just what might be expected from its author—very long, tedious, and plausible, but so entirely without point, that a person rising from his seat to read it, would find it tedious and tiresome, and as nearly as possible a waste of time.

For the several county officers to be elected—Clark, Sheriff, Treasurer, &c.—we have nominated one of our best men; men who have been tried and found faithful, as well to their duty as officers, as to the interests of their party as democrats. The credit and fair fame of our county demand that this attempt at dictation on the part of this miserable clique should be at once indignantly frowned down.

Humbug.—We have seen many learned discussions on the origin and derivation of this new common word. Which may be the correct one we will not undertake to decide; but the following definition of the true meaning of the word, is by all odds the best that has come under our notice. It beats Webster's Unabridged:—"It is a Republican (CHARLES CASE, for instance) preaching popular sovereignty, when he swears the people shall not say what kind of a constitution they want, and if they do, Congress shall not admit them into the Union."

Dr. W. F. SHERROD, of Orange Co. made an excellent democratic speech to our citizens on Monday evening last, in which he held up to moral scorn and indignation the deceptive course pursued by the republicans in the present canvass, in raising such a clamor about Kansas, only to divert public attention from their misdeeds at home. He portrayed in striking colors the factious and treacherous conduct of the republican Senators in our last Legislature, in wantonly trampling on the requirements of the constitution they had sworn to support; usurping the power vested in the Lieut. Governor; expelling members legally elected, and admitting members who had been elected by fraudulent votes; refusing to pass the necessary appropriation and appropriation bills, leaving the state without revenue; and in other ways obstructing the administration of the public affairs of the state. The speech was an excellent one, just suited to the times. It was throughout thoroughly democratic, alluding to the disunion of Leocompton and anti-Leocompton, Buchanan and Douglas democrats, and showing that the Kansas and Leocompton difficulties were all settled, and that all democrats stood upon the same platform and had the same duty to perform in sustaining democratic principles and the democratic administration. The Doctor is an eloquent speaker, thoroughly orthodox in his views, and will accomplish much good in the present canvass. It will make many such speeches as he favored us with.

An Ass in a Zebra Skin.—Esope tells us of an ass who dressed himself in a lion's skin and attempted to ape the monarch of the forest; and we also read of a jackdaw decked out in peacock's feathers. These events are supposed to have transpired in the olden times. The nearest approach to these things in modern times may be witnessed in this county. Charles Eckler, McCormick, the man who pledged himself to abide the decision of our democratic convention and support its nominees, and then came out in opposition to its whole proceedings, is busy peddling round a tremendous ten-column circular, written by Reuben D. Turner, and palming himself off as the author! The way he struts in his Zebra skin entirely throws his predecessor of lion skin into the shade. The circular is just what might be expected from its author—very long, tedious, and plausible, but so entirely without point, that a person rising from his seat to read it, would find it tedious and tiresome, and as nearly as possible a waste of time.

For the several county officers to be elected—Clark, Sheriff, Treasurer, &c.—we have nominated one of our best men; men who have been tried and found faithful, as well to their duty as officers, as to the interests of their party as democrats. They are good officers, honest men, and reliable democrats; have been fairly nominated by the last convention ever held in the county as the choice of the democratic party; and as such are entitled to the warmest support of every democrat in the county. We hope therefore, every democrat will do his duty to his country—attend the polls and vote the full, unseparated, sincere democratic ticket. Let us show the d-organizers that the Allen County democracy is not to be led astray, and that Allen County is bound to remain the glorious banner democratic county of the state.

Readers J. Dawson the Democratic Nominee for Congress in the Fort Wayne District, declines to stump the District with Mr. Case. He doubts that in such a contest he would be so utterly annihilated that it is better to exercise that "union" which is said to be the "better part of valor."—Telegraphic Note.

Altogether a mistake, Mr. Blad—our rather gross misrepresentation. Mr. Case's old Kansas striking speech is more likely to "utterly annihilate" himself than his competitor; like an overworked man, his recoil is far more dangerous than his discharge; and is more likely to kick himself over than to injure his antagonist. The truth is, Mr. Dawson came here for the purpose of making arrangements for a joint canvass with Mr. Case, when he learned that that gentleman had already commenced the canvass alone, and had his appointments out. No other alternative was left Mr. Dawson, than to follow Mr. Case's example, and canvass the district "on his own hook." It is the latter gentleman who exhibited that better part of valor. It may do him to talk about Mr. Dawson being afraid to meet Mr. Case, but such an assertion here, where he is known, would be laughed at.

Rising Second Thought.—A. C. Pepper, Esq. of Rising Sun, Ind., who bolted from the Democracy and became a candidate against their own free will for the State Senate, has lately backed down and quit.

Efforts of the D-organizers.—There is a small clique of unprincipled men and disappointed office seekers in this city, who are bent on destroying the Democratic party—if they can. The character of the clique may be readily guessed, when we say that the notorious rascal, D. Turner is at its head, and Benjamin Ruffner and C. McCormick are the tail. This clique is seeking to control the nominations in this county, and decide who are to be our candidates. They had the matter all out and tried before the convention, which they hoped to be able to pack so as to secure the nomination of their own creatures. In this they signally failed, as the people took the matter into their own hands and nominated their own candidates. Now they raise the cry of clique, and hope to defeat the regular nominations by running what they term independent candidates, and to aid this scheme, are able to publish what they call a campaign anti-clique democratic paper. The name of W. H. Eckler appears as the capable editor, but the imbecile Reuben D. will of course be the ruling spirit of the concern, and is admirably qualified for the dirty work it will have to perform. We wish his coadjutors much joy in their connection with him, and shall be pleased if they prove an exception to the general rule, and escape without paying too dear for their whistle. If they do, they may consider themselves fortunate.

Now, is there a man in the county who desires to see such a miserable clique as this assume the control of our county affairs, and decide who shall be our candidates for office? Their present candidates profess to be Democrats; but can any good Democrat vote for such men in preference to our regular nominees, who are far better men, and the choice of our delegates in convention? And if the choice is to be between such disaffected soreheads, and the reputable men composing the regular ticket, what good Republican can hesitate to support the latter? The credit and fair fame of our county demand that this attempt at dictation on the part of this miserable clique should be at once indignantly frowned down.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1858

The approaching election—it is time the democrats in this county were organizing and making arrangements to bring out their full strength at the approaching election, which will be one of unusual interest, as we have, in addition to our county officers, several state officers, a member of Congress, Senator, and two Representatives to elect. Let none stay from the polls thinking his vote may not be needed. It is the majority in the county is large, but every vote may be needed for the state ticket, as the republicans are making strenuous efforts to carry the state and the failure of a few democrats to vote either in this or any other county might decide the contest against us. A particular effort is being made by our opponents to elect the candidates for Supreme Judges, in hopes they would reverse the decision of the present bench declaring the prohibitory liquor law unconstitutional, in which case that odious, tyrannical, and unjust law would be forced upon us. Every man opposed to such blue law tyranny must exert himself to defeat this bad law.

The contest for member of Congress is close: there was a large majority in the district against us, at last election, and it will require the strongest efforts of the democrats to succeed on this occasion. Not a vote can be spared. Remember, that if the next Presidential election should go to the House of Representatives, it might depend upon our Representative whether the vote of the state should be given to the democratic candidate or his opponent—and that vote might decide the contest. A single vote might determine which way the vote of the state should be cast, and the failure to vote of a single democrat in this district, might change the character of the administration for four years. Let every democrat, then, be prepared to do his duty. Allen is the banner county of the state, and all eyes are watching us. We must maintain our proud position, and roll up our full majority.

The election of state senator and representative is also of the utmost consequence. The state is suffering from the factions caused by the republicans, and the next Legislature must contain a majority of law-abiding democrats, to repair the injury done the fame and credit of the state by the revolutionary course adopted at the last session of the legislature. We have honest, energetic men for our candidates, in whose hands we can safely commit our interests, with the assurance they will faithfully fulfill their trust. A strong effort is making by an insignificant coterie of disappointed office seekers to defeat their election, but we feel an abiding faith that the democracy of Allen County, will rally to the support of their candidates, and teach the school-boys that this is no place for them to either rule or ruin. No Zebra ticket can be elected here, nor will the officers recommending of such an animal be tolerated among us.

For the central county officers to be elected—Clerk, Sheriff, Treasurer, &c.—we have nominated some of our best men, men who have been tried and found faithful, as well to their duty as officers, as to the interests of their party as democrats. They are good officers, honest men, and reliable characters, have been fairly nominated by the last convention ever held in the county as the choice of the democratic party; and as such are entitled to the warmest support of every democrat in the county. We hope therefore, every democrat will do his duty to his country—attend the polls and vote the full, unreserved sinna pure democratic ticket. Let us show the organizers that the Allen County democracy is not to be led astray, and that Allen County is bound to remain the glorious banner democratic county of the state.

Ruben J. Dawson the Democratic Nominee for Congress in the Fort Wayne District, declines to stump the District with Mr. Case. He doubts feels that in such a contest he would be so utterly annihilated that it is better to exercise that "discretion" which is said to be the "better part of valor."—Tribune.

Altogether a mistake, Mr. Blad—our rather a gross misrepresentation. Mr. Case's old Kansas striking speech is more likely to "utterly annihilate" himself than his competitor; like an overloaded market, its recoil is far more dangerous than its discharge, and is more likely to kick him off over than to injure his antagonist. The truth is, Mr. Dawson came here for the purpose of making arrangements for a joint canvass with Mr. Case, when he learned that that gentleman had already commenced the canvass alone, and had his appointments out. No other alternative was left Mr. Dawson, than to follow Mr. Case's example, and canvass the district "on his own hook." It is the latter gentleman who exhibited that better part of valor. It may do in Toledo to talk about Mr. Dawson being afraid to meet Mr. Case, but such an assertion here, where he is known, would be laughed at.

Sober Second Thought—A. C. Pepper, Esq., of Rising Sun Ind., who bolted from the Democracy and became a candidate against their own vice for the State Senate, has lately backed down and quit.

Efforts of the Disorganizers.—There is a small clique of unprincipled men and disappointed office seekers in this city, who are bent on destroying the Democratic party—if they can. The character of the clique may be readily guessed, when we say that the notorious renegade, D. Turner is at its head, and Benjamin Ruffner and C. McCormick at the tail. This clique is seeking to control the nominations in this county, and decide who are to be our candidates. They had the matter all out and dried before the convention, which they hoped to be able to pack so as to secure the nomination of their own creatures. In this they signally failed, as the people took the matter into their own hands and nominated their own candidates. Now they raise the cry of clique, clique, and hope to defeat the regular nominations by running what they term independent candidates, and to aid this scheme, are about to publish what they call a campaign anti-clique democratic paper. The name of W. H. Eckles appears as the ostensible editor, but the immaculate Reuben D. will of course be the ruling spirit of the concern, and is admirably qualified for the dirty work it will have to perform. We wish his coadjutors much joy in their connection with him, and shall be pleased if they prove an exception to the general rule, and escape without paying too dear for their whistle. If they do they may consider themselves fortunate.

Now, is there a man in the county who desires to see such a miserable clique as this assume the control of our county affairs, and decide who shall be our candidates for office? Their present candidates profess to be Democrats, but can any good Democrat vote for such men in preference to our regular nominees, who are far better men, and the choice of our delegates in convention? and if the choice is to be between such disaffected scoundrels, and the reputable men composing the regular ticket, what good Republican can hesitate to support the latter? The credit and fair fame of our county demand that this attempt at dictation on the part of this miserable clique be at once indignantly frowned down.

Humburg.—We have seen many learned discussions on the origin and derivation of the word common word. Which may be the correct one we will not undertake to decide, but the following definition of the true meaning of the word, is by all odds the best that has come under our notice. It beats Webster's Unabridged:—"It is a Republican. CHARLES CASE, for instance, preaching popular sovereignty, when he says, 'the people shall not say that kind of a constitution they want, and if they do, Congress shall not admit them into the Union.'"

Dr. W. F. SHERRARD, of Orange Co., made an excellent democratic speech to our citizens on Monday evening last, in which he held up to scorn and indignation the deceptive course pursued by the republicans in the present canvass, in raising such a clamor about Kansas to divert public attention from their misdeeds at home. He portrayed in striking colors the factious and treacherous conduct of the republican Senate in our last Legislature, in wantonly trampling on the requirements of the constitution they had sworn to support, usurping the power vested in the Lieut. Governor; expelling members legally elected, and admitting members who had been elected by fraudulent votes; refusing to pass the necessary appropriation and appropriation bills, leaving the state without revenue and in other ways obstructing the administration of the public affairs of the state. The speech was an excellent one just suited to the times. It was throughout thoroughly democratic, alleging all distinctions of Lecompton and anti-Lecompton, Buchanan and Douglas democrats, and showing that the Kansas and Lecompton difficulties were all settled, and that all democrats stood upon the same platform and had the same duty to perform in sustaining democratic principles and the democratic administration. The Doctor is an eloquent speaker, thoroughly orthodox in his views, and will accomplish much good in the present canvass. He will make many such speeches as he favored us with.

An ass in a Zebra Skin.—Eop tells us of an ass who dressed himself in a lion's skin and attempted to ape the monarch of the forest, and we also read of a jackdaw decked out in peacock's feathers. These events are supposed to have transpired in the olden times. The nearest approach to these things in modern times may be witnessed in this county. Charles McCormick, the man who pledged himself to abide the decision of our democratic convention and support its nominees, and then came out in opposition to its whole proceedings, is busy peddling round a tremendous ten column circular, written by Reuben D. Turner, and pinning himself off as the author! The way he strutted in his Zebra skin entirely throws his predecessor of lion skin notoriety in the shade. The circular is just what might be expected from his author, very long, tedious, and plausible, but so essentially without point, that a person rising from his personal utterance at a loss to say what he has been reading about. As nearly as we can make out it falsifies the action of the convention, tries to raise a dust about a terrible clique that controls the democratic party, and makes out the above said Charley in his Zebra skin to be a stern and self sacrificing patriot who is bent on destroying the clique or perishing in the attempt.

It is unnecessary to reply to such a production. But we shall like to know when Mr. McCormick discovered the enormities of his convention. Immediately after the nominal vote were made he expressed his entire satisfaction, and said that it was an excellent and fair convention, and though disgraced he had no complaint to make! He has also acknowledged that himself and a few other equally honest and good democrats had leagued together into a clique and sought to carry the whole county against the town, county and nominations, and have a ticket entirely of their own selecting. He failed in his schemes, and his clique was miserably defeated by the convention—and he now comes forward with the impudence to charge that the convention was dictated by a clique. This is the old game of raising the cry of stop thief to screen himself, and he certainly proves himself a worthy disciple of the distinguished personage under whose control he is acting.

The whole thing is a scheme of Turner's to defeat the Democratic party in this county, and Charley while sitting in his borrowed plumes is only a tool in the hands of that mischievous intermediary. Can the people of Allen County trust a man brought out under such influences, who has broken his pledges, falsified his word in seeking the public suffrage under false pretenses, and more that all is the tool of one whose aim is the surest passport to public damnation? Who is he that the people should be asked to vote for him in preference to such upright men and tried Democrats as Schuyler Wheeler, a d Nelson McClain? Does any man know that he ever was a Democrat? Did he ever attend our conventions, or work for the good of the cause? Has he been in the habit of voting the Democratic ticket? Will any one venture to give affirmative replies to those inquiries.

With his private affairs and character we have no wish to meddle, though such an investigation would probably be no more favorable to his aspirations than the examination of his political antecedents. There is nothing in his whole career to entitle him to public confidence, nor have the citizens of Allen county any wish to support Turner candidates, either for Representative or Senator, though he has modestly brought out both for their acceptance.

The notorious Bill Hill has been arrested and is now in the hands of the t. Regulators at Kendallville, Noble Co. He has long been a leader of the band of outlaws who infested that region, and there are various charges against him, one, we believe, for murder. His arrest is a source of great rejoicing to the Regulators. He was arrested in Kansas by Bradley of the Chicago police, who received $1,400 for his services and expenses.

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago Railroad.—The track layers are busily at work on this road. The rails are now all laid to the crossing of the New Albany & Salem R. leaving only about 50 miles to lay. Three parties of track-layers are engaged and are pushing forward the work with all possible expedition, so there is little doubt it will be completed to Chicago, and the entire road opened for travel by the 1st of November next. When that is done the business of the road will be vastly increased. It is by far the best and most direct route from Chicago to the eastern cities, and will undoubtedly secure a large portion of the patronage now enjoyed by the Michigan Central and Michigan Southern roads.

WADE SHOWS, the immortal and unapproachable high priest in the temple of fashion, is again on hand with his fall supplies, consisting of a fashionable assortment of well-made gentlemen's clothing of superior quality, and fit for the wear of the most fastidious; also a heavy stock of beautiful cloths, cassimeres, vestings, &c., &c., of the latest styles and best fabrics, which he is prepared to fashion into garments according to the prevailing Paris and New York modes. Wade's renown as an artist of the first water, one who never fails to fit upon any kind of a form, and possesses the marvellous faculty of transforming the most awkward kind of a creature into a graceful and symmetrical gentleman, at least so far as outside appearances are concerned—is too well established to need any endorsement from us. All we want to say is that he has received his goods and is ready to wait on his customers. All who wish to embellish the outer man with a course give him an early call.

NEW MUSIC.—Mr. HORACE WATERS, the well-known Music Publisher and Piano Dealer, of 333 Broadway, New York, has recently issued the following popular piece of music, entitled:—"THE ANGELS TOLD ME SO." Words by REV. SYDNEY DYER, Music by HORACE WATERS, arranged as a song, or duet and chorus. Price 25 cents.

"We do not know that we can give a better description of this song than is furnished by the notices of prominent New York journals. The N. Y. Evening Post says:—"THE ANGELS TOLD ME SO."—Mr. Waters, the well-known Music Publisher, has composed and published a piece with this title, founded on an incident that recently occurred near this city. A little boy of six, having a brother of eight, got an impression that the angels told him that, though his brother would die, he would come back to him after death. When he was taken to see the corpse, he immediately exclaimed, 'the angels told me so.' It is a simple and touching song, arranged for one or two voices, and a chorus, and just the thing for the family circle. It is of that simple, yet spirited and pleasing character, that will accord with the popular taste."—N. Y. Evening Express.

Will Mr. Waters please forward us a copy of his Catalogue of Music?

The Promised Circular at Last.—From the amount of valuable time expended in getting up Mr. McCormick's circular, we supposed the natives would be astonished when it did appear—and sure enough they are. Ever since the Democratic Convention was held a little clique composed of Reuben D. Turner, Benjamin Ruffner, and Charles McCormick and about as many more crazy sore heads could be seen during the day on stone boxes, corners of streets, and bye ways, and at nights in various places when not in session devising ways and means to annihilate the Democratic party. What a farce! It is as John Randolph once said in regard to the U. S. Bank, his attacking Gibraltar with a pocket pistol.

But to the circular.—The mountain has labored and brought forth a mouse. Surely never were so many words strung together with so little sense or meaning to them. Ten mortal columns of most unmitigated Zebra's badness, not amounting to half as much as a sensible man would have said in as many lines. The Zebra has proved himself no better than a common donkey.

The poor thing died immediately without a struggle. Service by Rev. R. D. Turner. Pallbearers, Ruffner and McCormick, Mourner, Jacob, William, Moses, and Solomon. Fort Wayne, Sept. 11th.

Total Destruction of Staten Island Quarantine Buildings.—New York, September 3. The remainder of the quarantine buildings were destroyed by the fire last night, meeting with no opposition. There was no objection to a guard of United States troops was present, to protect Government property. The configuration commenced soon after the adjournment of a meeting held by the citizens of Richmond County. Among the buildings burned were six cottages occupied by the boatmen employed on the station. A large mansion occupied by Mr. Waller, the health officer, and a fine brick dwelling, formerly owned by Dr. Bisset. The furniture had been removed from all the buildings, excepting the last named Dr. Bisset, though warned of the intended burning refused to remove an article, and made no attempts to stop the flames.

Later.—Soon after midnight, the Female Hospital was set on fire and a wholly consumed. It contained nearly fifty patients, who were previously removed and placed on the grass plot between the Hospital and the resident physician's house. The latter being still on fire, where they remained through the night, covered by the showers of sparks from the burning buildings. The Seventh Regiment of our city had been notified to hold themselves in readiness for an emergency, but up to the last notice had not been called out. Three of the sick persons removed from the Hospital have since died from the exposure.

QUARANTINE Staten Island, Sept. 3.—P. M. The steambort Dr. Kane has just arrived from New York with a force of one hundred policemen and a six pounder. They are also provided with tools to shelter the sick, who have been exposed to the mud and sun during the day, and are now exposed to a denuding rain. The second assistant engineer, whose death from yellow fever has occurred during the day. Dr. Waller and Bisset have devoted their attention to the sick, and are administering to their wants. Although greatly exhausted from want of sleep, and from exertion and exposure, they are still working for the destruction of the Hospital, and other buildings of Dr. Waller, throughout all the terrible trying scenes, has acted the part of abhor and philanthropist.

Three sick men from the ship Liberty, from New Orleans, are lying on the pier, there being no shelter for them. The harbor police force came down to the island, this evening, to protect the shipping at anchor, it being rumored that the incendiaries intended to destroy it. The inhabitants of the infected district were notified to remove their effects to dry, as they dwelling would be liable to night. With the present high wind, the safety of the village would be jeopardized. The harbor police, Dr. Thompson, Dr. Kane, and with Dr. Waller and other assistants are doing all in their power to provide for the sick and to reorganize the establishment. The rain is still pouring down, and there is no place within the quarantine walls to shelter the sick. The rains were visited during the day by a large number of people.

New York, Sept. 1.—The parties arrested for being concerned in the Staten Island outrage were to day held to answer in $1,000. Charles Vanderbolt became their security. Charges of complicity in the outrage have been made against M. P. O'Brien a clerk in our Street Commission, and against Dr. Kane, a member of the Harbor police. It is said that President Buchanan was yesterday telegraphed to and informed of the State of affairs, when he immediately sent back directions to General Scott to make use of all the means at his disposal to protect government property and shipping. The patients are still on the island, and under the treatment of the harbor police. Eight new cases of yellow fever were added yesterday, by fresh arrivals. Three additional deaths were reported among the old patients, which were hastened by the prevailing excitement.

Matthews the Stevedore, who was shot by the mob on the first night of the attack, died at the hospital to day.

Nothing remains of the Quarantine buildings at Staten Island but a mass of smoking ruins. All the hospitals, offices and physicians' residences fell a prey to the flames. The second attack made a clean sweep of all and every building occupied by the Quarantine authorities. In the attack of Wednesday and Thursday night, thirty-two buildings were laid in ashes. The ring leaders, who had been arrested at last advice, procured bail to the amount of $2,000 each. Among those who appeared to give bail for the prisoners was Commodore Vanderbolt, of steamship notoriety. It is evident that a considerable portion of the population in the vicinity of the Quarantine side with the rioters, having for a long time made every legal effort to rid their vicinity of the establishment, which they considered destructive to the value of their property and dangerous to their health.

Yellow Fever on Staten Island.—We learn from the New York Times that Dr. Edward C. Matthews, the health Commissioner of the harbor, states that yellow fever exists as an epidemic in Tompkinsville, Long Island, New York, where seventeen cases have occurred, six of which proved fatal. The disease at that place has been entirely within the limits of a triangle, but a lack of small tenements near the water and adjacent to the harbor, which is a great disadvantage to the health of the city, has been employed by the Quarantine authorities to burn infected clothing in the iron scow. This has brought some articles home with him, and in consequence both he and his wife died of yellow fever. They resided in the block referred to, and were the first victims. Several cases have also occurred in the block, though the disease is not regarded as epidemic in that locality. Dr. Mundy is of opinion that the infection was communicated by burning the contents of the iron scow too near the shore.

Arrival of the Fulton.—The steamship Fulton, from Southampton, was passed to day, and passed on Friday, and her crew were obtained by the Associated Press.

The American advices by the steamer Indian from Quebec, were received at Liverpool on the 24th. The ship Mayflower, from New Orleans for Nantes, has been captured at sea, and became a total wreck. Fifteen of her crew were saved, and the rest perished. The ship was captured by the right of having Minister resident in China, but only a couple of Generals resident at Tientsin, who are to have died "intercourse with the cabinet of the Emperor."

Queen Victoria continues her progress in Germany. She was received everywhere with respect and good will. Preparations were making for a royal visit to Leeds on her return from Germany.

The world renowned frigate Argonne, which crossed herself with glory in the laying of the telegraph cable, had been on fire, fortunately sustained but little damage.

There has been a collision between two excursion boats on the Hudson River, between the Railroad, involving dreadful consequences. Several persons were killed and many others fatally injured.

The condition of the Thames river, the fifthness of which has excited much remorse, has been improved to some extent.

The notorious horse "Cruser," which has been trained by Mr. Rarey, is now performing in a circus.

The accounts from the harvest are very satisfactory. The rains has caused some delay in gathering the crops, but no permanent injury has been caused. Messrs. Chudmas, Duncan & Gibbs of Liverpool, has suspended payment but their assets will cover the liabilities. The cotton exchanges show great firmness, especially at Paris.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the "Chinese Empire" is to be open to foreigners, and that the left bank of the Amur is henceforth to be boundary between Russia and China.

Breadstuffs.—Messrs. Richardson, Spence & Co. state that the weather had become favorable for harvesting, checking the advancing train in prices. Western flour quoted at 20 a 21s; Philadelphia and Baltimore 21s 6d a 22s; Ohio 22s a 23s 6d. Wheat is steady, and prices for choice descriptions of Red Western 6s 6d a 6s 3d; Red Southern 6s 6d a 6s 3d; White Western 6s 6d a 6s 3d; Yellow 6s 6d a 6s 3d; prime White 3s 4s 6d.

Arrival of the Asia.—Malacca, Sept. 8. The steamer Asia, Capt. Scott, which sailed from Liverpool on the 28th, arrived this morning.

A prospectus had been issued in England for a telegraph to China and Australia. Lord Palmerston had said in a speech that the French Government had demanded an explanation to the British Cabinet relative to the bombardment of Djeddah. There was a doubtful report in circulation that Naples had accepted the conditions of the Western Powers. It was stated that the amount of indemnity to be paid by China to England and France was £1,000,000.

Liverpool Market.—Breadstuffs were generally firm. Provisions were steady with the exception of beef, on which there was a slight decline, and proper very heavy.

The British Board of Trade's returns for July show a decrease in exports of £1,300,000. The daily news cables on European Powers to watch closely the action of the French Government. It was reported that the British Government had concluded a treaty with the American Government to acquire possession of the Isthmus.

France.—Pellissier's recall from the Ambassadorship to London is expected soon, at his own request. The French Government, anticipating the possibility of the more outbreaks on Christians in consequence of the bombardment of Djeddah, about to increase its naval force in the Mediterranean.

Spain.—A Madrid telegraph states that a military expedition is preparing for Havana. Turkey is said to have complained the English Ambassador of the bombardment of Djeddah, when it was known that Ismail Pasha was en route to Constantinople to punish the guilty ruler of the city. It was reported that the British Government had concluded a treaty with the American Government to acquire possession of the Isthmus.

London, Saturday.—By telegraph from Malta Bombay dates are to August 4th. Nothing of importance had occurred. The British troops were being sent to the authorities. The British troops were being sent to the authorities. The British troops were being sent to the authorities.

WASHINGTON, September 4.—Col. Rector has been instructed by the Secretary of the Interior to proceed to Florida, and as the season will permit, to take measures for the removal of the Seminoles, who are now in the Everglades. The Secretary of War is desirous that this shall be done under the superintendence of Col. Rector alone, without the interference of Florida or the citizens of Florida. White flags will be distributed through the swamps for the purpose of calling them together to a council. No military will be employed. The Indians will be removed to Arkansas, where R. B. Bowlegs and all his band are now located, should the negotiations be successful.

St. Louis, Sept. 7.—The R. R. public beats it. Governor Richardson of Nebraska has resigned with the intention of returning to Illinois and canvassing the State for Douglas.

New York, Sept. 7.—The first public meeting in this designed to secure a union of the Republican and American parties on practical issues and Anti-Administration grounds, was held last night, about 600 hundred persons were present. The Chair was taken by Robert H. McCurdy, the principal speaker was Wm. M. Everett, this city. An address was also made by the Hon. Mr. Broom of Pa., and a few remarks were addressed to the meeting by Mr. Joseph H. Davis. A series of resolutions drafted for the occasion were adopted unanimously.

Kansas Affairs.—Our private advices from Kansas, and the tone of the press in that Territory, all show the prevalence there of a quiet feeling, which is a presage of good to the best interests of the Territory. A few of the re-appearing spirits, desirous to bring on action on the part of the regular convention, have called for a special session. But he sees no necessity for such measure, and his course is approved by a majority of the people. The editor of the Lawrence Herald of Freedom takes a very sensible view of the whole matter. That paper suggests that it will be time enough to agitate the formation of a new constitution and the question of admission into the Union when the Legislature comes together in regular course next January.—St. Louis Republican.

Ireland the Land of Plenty.—The following harvest report is from Cork Ireland:—"The crops of all kinds are so abundant and so entirely free from the appearance of disease or failure, that this may be considered the first year of plenty since the famine. The yield of all produce is far beyond the measure of the country, and a large surplus is being sent to the country may at length congratulate itself in the assurance that its troubles are at an end. Even the potato seems to have all at once recovered the firmness and sweetness of its best days. In point of prosperity, Ireland need envy no country in Europe at this moment."

Fort Wayne College.—The Fall Session will commence on Tuesday September 21st, and continue fourteen weeks.

Rev. H. H. Messenger, of Gambier, Ohio, now acting agent for the Board of Foreign Missions of the Episcopal Church, will preach in Trinity Church in this city on Monday morning and afternoon, on which occasion he will present the claims of Bishop Parris's African Missions, to the people of this place. All who feel an interest in the interesting mission are requested to attend. This gentleman will proceed to Africa himself in a short time as a Missionary.

Grove Meeting and Pic Nic Dinner at Pierceton.—Rev. George B. Brown, of Clyde, Ohio, and W. J. Chaplin, of Pierceton, Ind., will preach in the Grove near Pierceton, Whitley Co. on Sunday, Sept. 12th, (to-morrow). The public are respectfully invited to attend. An extra train will leave Fort Wayne at 8:30 A. M. and returning arrive at 5:45 P. M. taking passengers at HALF FARE. Turn out everybody, and bring along a basket dinner. A gospel feast is anticipated.

Hon. R. J. DAWSON, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the people of Whitley County at the following times and places:—The New School House, in Jefferson Township, Monday evening, September 13th at 7 o'clock. At Springfield Tuesday evening Sept. 14th at 7 o'clock. At Huntsville, Wednesday evening 15th, at 7 o'clock. At Columbus Thursday evening 16th, at 7 o'clock. At Concord Meeting House, Friday evening 17th at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Editor.—Please announce the name of JAMES HUMPHREY as a candidate for the State Senate, to be voted for at the next election.

We are desirous to announce that SOL D. BAYLESS is an Independent Candidate to represent Allen Co. in the next Legislature.

FORT WAYNE, Aug. 14th, 1858

EDITOR SENTINEL:—The combination under which I. D. G. Nelson, obtained the nomination for Clerk at the late Democratic Convention, was so unjust and unfair, in my opinion and in that of my friends, that I feel called upon to appeal to the decision of the voters of Allen County, at the October Election next. My reasons in full for taking this course will be given in another form in due time.

W. S. EDSALL.

PLEASE TO ANNOUNCE JACOB C. BOWSER as an independent candidate for the office of Sheriff of Allen County, at the October election—and oblige
